

Employment First Missouri Community of Practice for Support Coordinators

Tuesday, May 13, 2025
1:00 – 2:00PM CT

Register to join the community here

Are you a passionate support coordinator seeking a way to connect with others who want to better support people with disabilities to find meaningful employment?

The Employment First Community of Practice for Support Coordinators is a new, exciting platform where you can collaborate with others.

Offered online from May 2025 – May 2026, monthly, one-hour sessions, 2nd Tuesday @ 1pm.

No judgment or “wrong answers” – join a shared learning space, where it’s safe to ask questions and discuss

Access tools, strategies, and practical takeaways

Increase knowledge, creativity, and critical thinking skills

Please email Jessica.keenoy@umb.edu with questions or accommodation requests.

Employment First Missouri, is a collaborative between the Division of Developmental Disabilities and the Institute for Community Inclusion at University of Massachusetts-Boston.

